Song Entitled

LINDY

Words and Music

Composed by

Daniel McLellan

Published by
DANIEL McLELLAN
5 Concord Square, Boston, Mass.

Made in U.S.A.

Song entitled

LINDY

Words and Music composed by DANIEL McLELLAN

Tempo di Valse
f Lin - dy for - ev - er on land and sea Lin - dy for - ev - er, a he - ro is mf
he. He flies to Par - is in his favo - rite plane, Now in You'll re - mem - ber the wel - come un - til you die To New From the high to the low the young and the old, Ever - y - O such a wel - come the world nev - er knew, When to St.
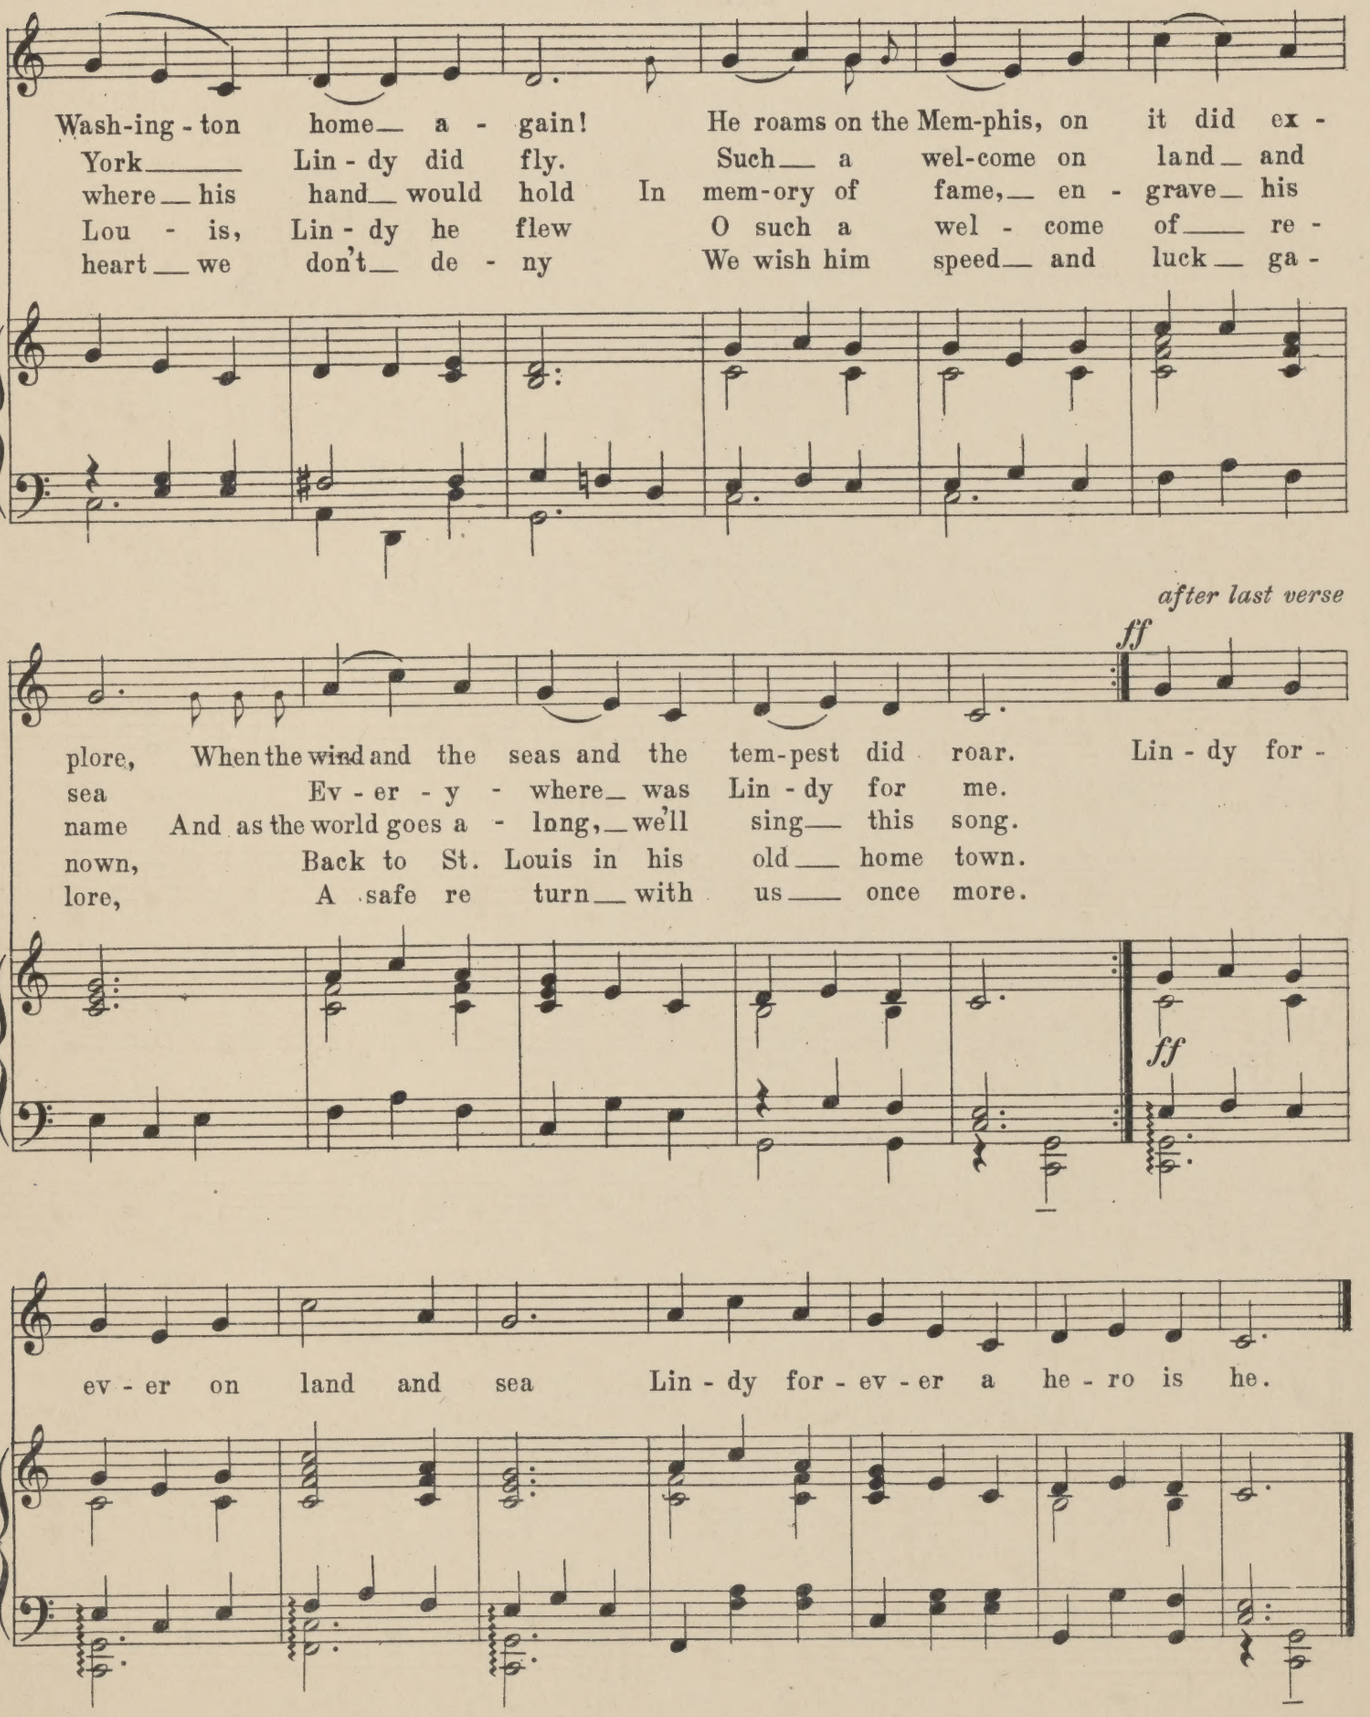
A-round the world he will fly And in our

Copyright 1927 by Daniel McLellan



Wash-ing-ton home a - gain! He roams on the Mem-phis, on it did ex - York Lin - dy did fly. Such a wel-come on land and where his hand would hold In mem-ory of fame, en - grave his Lou - is, Lin - dy he flew O such a wel - come of re - heart we don't de - ny We wish him speed and luck ga - after last verse
ff plore, When the wind and the seas and the tem-pest did roar. Lin - dy for - sea Ev - er - y - where was Lin - dy for me.
name And as the world goes a - long, we'll sing this song.
nown, Back to St. Louis in his old home town.
lore, A safe re turn with us once more.
ff
ev - er on land and sea Lin - dy for - ev - er a he - ro is he.